BREVITIES

A Unique Service—The Methodist Brotherhood is putting life into the evening Sunday service. Their latest plan is to have a service especially for men, for whom seats will be reserved and flowers provided. The service will be especially for men; topic, "Be Strong."

Somewhat Improved—Ernest Brown, city recorder, is reported somewhat improved yesterday. Friday was observed as a fast day in Weber Stake as an appeal for his recovery.

Here From Leadville—J. F. Bruins, assistant supervisor of the Leadville national forest of Colorado, stopped off in the city yesterday en route home from a business trip into the St. Anthony country of Idaho. Mr. Bruins is the first from the Denver District, No. 2, Forest Service, to visit the local headquarters. He was in conference with Forester Leavitt and others during the day on matters pertaining to the two headquarters. The snow in the Leadville forest is still very deep, according to Mr. Bruins, being as much as twenty feet in some places. He left for Leadville last night.

Bass Singer Will Be Heard—W. L. Richardson, a bass soloist of Salt Lake City, will spend Sunday in Ogden and will render one solo at the morning and two bass solos at the evening service in the First Presbyterian church. Mr. Richardson is a member of the Schubert male quartette.

Quarterly Conference—Weber Stake quarterly conference will be held Sunday, at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. in the Ogden Tabernacle. Apostles Heber J. Grant and David O. McKay and others will attend and speak to the people. Special music has been arranged for by Elder Joseph Ballantyne. A full attendance is desired.

Hns La Grippe—George W. Davis, of Richards, Davis & Boyd, has been confined to his home for a couple of days with a slight attack of la grippe.

Malad Forest Users—A meeting of the Malad Forest Users' association will be held at Malad, Idaho, today for the purpose of discussing range, wool and mutton markets, and other topics of general interest to sheep and cattle-men. This association was formed not long ago for the purpose of co-operating with the Forest Service much after the manner of the various wool growers' associations throughout Idaho and thus far much success has been accomplished in facilitating the settlement of range problems and in many ways assisting in the successful administration of the national forests in the vicinity of Malad. Assistant Forester Reed, who was in Pocatello yesterday, will attend the meeting.

High Water—The warm weather of the past week has resulted in high water in both Echo and Weber canyons and melting snows will increase the flood in those districts from this time on. No damage is reported on the Union Pacific, but a sharp look out is being kept and extra men are scattered all along the track between Ogden and Evanston.

Conferring With Detective—Grant Gordon of the Southern Pacific passenger department at San Francisco, arrived from the west yesterday, and is in conference with special Agent Joe Jones in reference to property recently stolen from the Harriman railroads.

They Saw the Town—The Ogden newboys were treated to an automobile ride in Denny Smyth's machine yesterday. After the sight-seeing they were served with refreshments. The youngsters in the party were: Gerrard Denkers, Carl Smith, Willie

Eighteen Mining Students—Eighteen students of the Utah school of mines will leave Ogden May 4 for Denver over the Union Pacific system. They will occupy a tourist kitchen car and be absent from the state several weeks in their work through Colorado.

Fifty-Six Converts—Fifty-six converts of the Mormon church will arrive from the east over the Union Pacific this morning en route to the southern part of the state. The converts are from various European ports and are in charge of several missionaries.

W. F. Herrin Goes West—W. F. Herrin, general counsel of the Southern Pacific at San Francisco, arrived in the private car "Wildwood" yesterday and later on continued on to the coast after a business trip to New York.

Cattle and Sheep—Thirty cars of sheep from southern Utah arrived at Ogden yesterday for transportation to the summer range at Wasatch. Six cars of cattle were also received from the north and sent to eastern markets yesterday morning.

Transplanting Oysters—Several cars of Baltimore oysters in the shell were sent west yesterday for the purpose of being transplanted in the bay of San Francisco.

At the Hospital—Mrs. J. Q. Davis, of 2217 Washington avenue, became a patient at the Ogden General hospital Friday and will undergo an operation of an important surgical nature.

Nick Vacos in Court—Nick Vacos, charged with the murder of John Conos on April 3, was taken into court yesterday to plead, but the time for entering a plea was extended to April 26, and the prisoner was returned to his cell.

They Plead Guilty—Harris and Delaney, charged with burglary in the second degree, were arraigned in the district court yesterday and pleaded guilty. They will be taken into court for sentence early next week.

Disturbed the Peace—Frank Wadsworth was arrested yesterday by Deputy Sheriffs Naylin and Murphy on a charge of disturbing the peace at Riverdale. The complaint was sworn out by Ira Spaulding.

Suit for Damages—Robert G. Aree, administrator of the estate of the late John Tomisk, has instituted a suit for personal damages against the Diamond Coal and Coke company.

McVey Case—Notice was filed yesterday of a motion to set aside the verdict rendered in the case of the State against Daniel McVey and for a new trial of the case.

PROBATE CALENDAR IN DISTRICT COURT

The following cases on the probate calendar were before Judge Howell yesterday.

Estate of Nels Johnson, otherwise known as Nels Johnson, deceased; petition for letters of administration. Estate and guardianship of Mary Anderson, minor; petition for monthly allowance and petition for purchase of piano. Granted.

H. W. DENNETT TO SPEAK ON SUNDAY EVENING

H. W. Dennett, ex-organizer of the International Typographical Union, will be the speaker at the Congregational church this evening, at 8 o'clock. For 25 years Mr. Dennett has been identified with this organization and thus speaks out of a rich experience.

His address will be upon "Trades Unionism—Ethics, Morals, Practice."

WESTERN THEATER MANAGERS DECLARE OPEN-DOOR POLICY—New York, April 17.—Theatrical managers in this city were formally notified last night by their western representatives that the Western Theater Managers' association had declared an "open-door" policy, and would no longer bind its houses to any producer, booking association or syndicate.

About one hundred and seventy-five theaters are affected by the move.

Receipt That Cures Weak Men—Free

Send Name and Address Today—You Can Have It Free and be Strong and Vigorous.

I have in my possession a prescription for nervous debility, lack of vigor, weakened manhood, falling memory and lame back, brought on by excesses, unnatural drains or the follies of youth, that has cured so many worn and nervous men right in their own homes—without any additional help or medicine—that I think every man who wishes to regain his manly power and virility, quickly and quietly, should have a copy. So, I have determined to send a copy of the prescription, free of charge, in a plain, unsealed envelope, to any man who will write me for it.

This prescription comes from a physician who has made a special study of men, and I am convinced it is the surest-acting combination for the cure of deficient manhood and vigor-failure ever put together.

I think I owe it to my fellow man to send them a copy in confidence, so that any man, anywhere who is weak and discouraged with repeated failures may stop dragging himself with harmful patent medicines, secure what I believe, is the quickest-acting, restorative, rebuilding, SPOT-TOUCHING remedy ever devised, and so cure himself at home quietly and quickly. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, 4420 Luck Bldg., Detroit, Mich., and I will send you a copy of this splendid receipt, in a plain, original sealed envelope, free of charge.

HE FELL OFF THE WATER WAGON

MIGHTY SPLASH WHICH COST EDDIE $5.

Police Court Was a Place of Woe Yesterday Morning—Colored Woman Was Not Presentable.

Police court grind yesterday consisted of a variety of petty cases, including drunks, vagrants, embezzlers, "hop-heads," fast drivers and petty thieves.

Margaret Brown, whose case of vagrancy was not called in Friday's court owing to the lady being "not presentable," was arraigned yesterday. She pleaded guilty to vagrancy and was given a fine of $10 or ten days.

Sam Reilly, a colored man, was charged with drunkenness. Sam admitted that he had been "lunked up a bit," and the court, evidently thinking that he was still in that condition, ordered him put back in the cooler to sober up. Sam insisted that he was "puffily sober," but to no avail.

A. Wilson, colored, pleaded guilty to a charge of vagrancy, but Officer Cronin, who arrested him, not being present, the case was continued until the afternoon session.

Fred Engles, charged with vagrancy, stated that he had a ticket to Salt Lake and was therefore not guilty. He pleaded for ten minutes in which to leave town and exhibited a sore leg to explain why he had not left before when told to do so. Captain Brown stated that Engles was a "hop-head" and had just served fifteen days for stealing a flatiron, and so the court decided that he had better spend ten days in jail and get himself into shape for traveling.

Ed McFall pleaded guilty to drunkenness and was given the customary fine of $5 or five days.

P. A. Guffey, William Burns and C. W. Marsh were arraigned on the charge of vagrancy. They entered pleas of not guilty in each case and the matter was ordered continued until the afternoon session at 3 p. m., bail being fixed at $10 each.

Eddie Lamar admitted that he had "fallen off the water wagon again with a mighty splash." The court passed sentence at the rate of $5 per splash and the matter was closed.

O. B. Knutsen and J. P. Alexander, the two suspects whose cases were continued from Friday's session, were again presented for trial. Detective Pender stated that he wished the case continued until Monday as the charge of vagrancy would probably be changed to petit larceny, the men having stolen a grip from a saloon.

Cliff Forstall and Will Dixon were charged with fast driving. Neither was present, however, and the judge ordered that they be arrested and brought into court.

Frank Snyder pleaded guilty to the charge of petit larceny, having stolen a harness valued at $15 from David F. Hunter. The court sentenced him to thirty days on the rock pile or to pay a fine of $30.

The case of R. R. Houtz, charged with embezzling the funds of a newspaper, was dismissed, the judge stating that he doubted the legality of arresting the boy. He gave the latter considerable good advice about spending other people's money as well as allowing the same to become mixed up with his own. He permitted Houtz to change his plea of guilty to one of not guilty and ordered him released on his own recognizance.

AOKI AND HIS WHITE WIFE

WERE IN OGDEN EN ROUTE TO SALT LAKE.

Passengers Greatly Interested in the Billing and Coaling of the Japanese and His Bride.

Gunjiro Aoki, the former Japanese servant of Archdeacon Emery of San Francisco, who married the Episcopal clergyman's daughter after a romantic trip to Seattle two weeks ago, passed through Ogden Friday on a Short Line train from Portland. Aoki was accompanied by his white wife and the two were bound for Salt Lake. They caught a section of the Pullman car "Beechwood" and were conspicuous by their billing and coaling during their trip south from Spokane where they have been spending a part of the honeymoon period. Mrs. Aoki is described by passengers on the train as a particularly handsome young woman and her ostentatious display of affection for her dark-skinned husband attracted the attention and provoked the comment of other occupants of the car.

Aoki was evidently proud of his attractive young wife and discussed their romantic courtship and marriage with both passengers and trainmen. He was recent, however, in regard to their ultimate destination and simply said he and his bride were on an extended wedding trip and were enjoying themselves.

With her marriage to Aoki, his wife surrendered her American citizenship and became a subject of Japan and the Mikado.

Those who observed the woman on the train say that she has passed the romantic school-girl period long ago and is quite old enough to appreciate the remarkable step taken and the unpleasant notoriety attained by her marriage to a Japanese lover.

WOODMEN TO PARADE ON MAY 3

LAW PARTNER OF W. J. BRYAN WILL BE HERE.

He is Head Consul of Modern Woodmen of America and Will Be Given a Warm Welcome.

Local camp No. 3990, Modern Woodmen of America, is planning to have one of the biggest and loudest times ever had in Ogden, under the auspices of the Modern Woodmen. On May 3rd the Head Consul, A. R. Talbot, and other head officials of the society will be here to pay the Utah Woodmen a visit.

This will be the first time in the 26 years of the existence of the order that Utah Woodmen have been honored by the presence of a Head Consul, and they, therefore, intend to make things interesting for him.

Head Consul Talbot is the former law partner of W. J. Bryan, and is a very forceful speaker on fraternalism, and will, at that time, give a talk, which will be worth hearing. He has spent only one day in Ogden, and from here will go to Salt Lake, where he will spend the succeeding day, before returning to his headquarters at Lincoln, Neb.

Plans are now perfected to have a delegation comprising the leading men of Ogden and of the society, meet Mr. Talbot at the depot, and escort him to Ogden canyon, where lunch will be served. He will then be shown over the town and vicinity by a committee of members.

In the evening, at about 7 o'clock, there will be a big street parade, after which there will be a class adoption of new candidates. This will be followed by a speech by Mr. Talbot, and at that time the prize banner will be awarded to the camp for the coming year, for having the largest gain in beneficial members for the year 1908. Utah camp has grown exceedingly fast the past year, having had a net gain of 114 new beneficial members, besides the socials.

J. W. WOOLDRIDGE SPEAKS OF BURLINGAME TYPEWRITER

J. W. Wooldridge, general agent of the Burlingame Telegraph Typewriter company, in an interview, yesterday, said:

"Regarding an article which appeared in the Examiner, April 14, concerning an 'Electric Typewriter,' I wish to say in favor of the Burlingame Underwriters, that it could not have been in reference to the Burlingame Co., unless the representation made originated from some one not an authorized agent for the company. The conditions under which we are operating, and have been operating in this territory for a solid year, are very different from the authorities upon which we base our statements are from the highest possible source. On account of a subsidiary company to be formed the company is permanently located here and is soliciting the closest scrutiny."

"The statements made by our representatives have been verified by men of the highest standing in this community who have issued letters to that effect. We are deeply in earnest and sincere in our efforts to get the facts of our business clearly before the public and hope that they may be able to come from a regularly authorized agent of the Burlingame Underwriters."

BAMBERGER BUYS PROPERTY OF MANY

Simon Bamberger has disposed of the controversy in this city as to whether his railroad grade in the neighborhood of Thirty-second and Wall streets was damaging the adjoining property by buying all the property claimed to be damaged. This was done by arbitration, since the recent protest of the property owners was made before the city council, and the deeds of transfer were placed on record Friday. In the arbitration Carl C. Rasmussen represented the Salt Lake & Ogden Railway company and S. E. Stephens, John G. Ellis and B. H. Goddard represented various property owners.

Seven lots with a house and barn were bought from Charles Pincock for $2,775; two lots with a house and barn were bought from G. H. Van Leeuwen for $2,000; two lots with a house and barn were bought from R. C. Carr for $1,500. The vacant lots brought from $125 to $150, compared with $25 to $40 for which they were offered three years ago.

LIFE BEYOND THE GRAVE. A SERIES OF SERMONS

The evening sermons in the First Presbyterian church for the next few weeks, will be upon the important realities of "The Life Beyond the Grave." Many questions have been asked the pastor since Easter Day concerning the risen life and the condition and state of the soul immediately after death as well as the biblical teaching concerning the life after the general resurrection and heaven and hell. Realizing the deep interest which all feel in these great themes the next few evening sermons will be upon the generally accepted teachings of the various leading churches in regard to these great facts. The following subjects will be considered:

April 18—"The Credibility of the Resurrection of the Body"

April 25—"The State of the Soul After Death and Prior to the General Resurrection," together with purgatory and paradise.

May 4—"Heaven and Hell."

The services Sunday evening will deal with the data which both confirm and deny the resurrection of the body. Mr. W. L. Richardson of Salt Lake will sing two bass solos at this service.

CELESTA L. SHIPP HAS ASKED FOR DIVORCE

Late yesterday afternoon Celesta L. Shipp instituted formal proceedings in a suit for divorce from Walter C. Shipp. The complaint alleges that the two were married in Salt Lake City, September 30, 1903, and that for the past three years defendant has treated plaintiff in a cruel, brutal and inhuman manner, resorting to personal violence on numerous occasions and "rendering her condition unbearable and her life a burden."

The complaint alleges that defendant owns a one-third interest in the St. Louis club rooms at Ogden and is worth from $10,000 to $14,000, part of this property being in money deposited in local banks. Plaintiff asks $250 for attorney's fees and temporary alimony pending the trial of the case and such permanent alimony as the court deems proper and just. A restraining order is also asked to prevent defendant from withdrawing his money from the banks or transferring his property to others.

TROOPS ARE ON THE WAY TO CONSTANTINOPLE

Troops from Adrianople and Salonika are moving toward Constantinople. This information is conveyed by the Constantinople correspondent of the Frankfurter Zeitung in a dispatch published here today. Trains with about 2,500 soldiers aboard from Salonika and Adrianople arrived at 3 o'clock this morning at Tchatalla, about twenty-five miles west of Constantinople. The men left the cars in an orderly manner and occupied the fortifications. An artillery regiment stationed at Tchatalla remained passive. A garrison of 1,200 men holding Hadomkeni, an outpost of Tchatalla, joined the Salonika regiments.

The railroad line between Teradjek and Salonika is closed to general traffic owing to transportation of the troops from Salonika.

CORNELL ALUMNI TO AID THEIR ALMA MATER

New York, April 17.—Cornell alumni have organized a body to be known as the Cornellian council, whose purpose shall be to promote systematic donations to the university on the part of alumni. The movement was started last fall but the organization was not perfected until yesterday when a meeting was held of the Cornell alumni in this city. In a nutshell, the plan is to induce every alumnus, or former student to give a stated sum to his Alma Mater each year. This is similar in a general way to the plan in vogue in Princeton, Yale and Harvard.

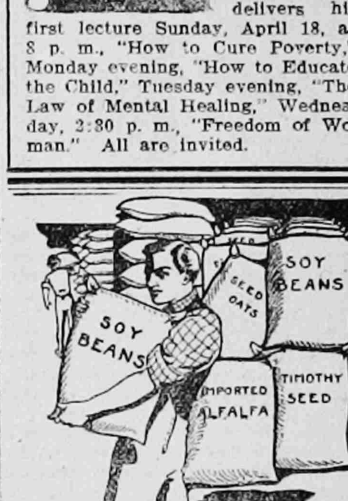

According to the preliminary arrangements of the Cornellians, the council shall be composed of fifty members, ten at large and one appointed from each of the last forty classes. Each year, the newest class names a member who displaces the member from the oldest class. The Princeton's systematic giving in the last four years has totalled more than $1,000,000 and as Princeton has approximately 8,000 graduates, or former students, while Cornell has 18,000 or more, the Cornellians are sanguine as to the result of their project. It is hoped to raise at least $50,000 in the first year.
